

DETROIT SPORTSMEN'S CONGRESS – 2017 MSA (SKEET) CLUB OF THE YEAR

The Michigan Skeet Association Board of Directors announced April 7, 2018, that Detroit Sportsmen's Club is its 2017 (Skeet) Club of the Year. Saginaw Gun Club followed in second place and Negaunee Rod & Gun Club came in at 3rd place for the 2017 awards. The MSA Board used the following five criteria to determine the results of the annual skeet achievement award.

1. Total targets thrown for the shooting year.
2. Actual increase of targets thrown compared to the previous shooting year.
3. Percent increase of targets thrown compared to the previous shooting year.
4. Number of shoots held in the shooting year.
5. Number of targets thrown to Sub-Junior and Junior shooters.

Detroit Sportsmen's Congress hosted three 3-day shoots (5-gun), four 1-day shoots (2-gun), five 1-day Mini shoots (1-gun) and one Junior Invitational shoot during 2017. A total of 61,600 targets were thrown in these thirteen registered skeet shoots.
